

Information Package

Thanks for your interest in Little Chico Productions. Attached is a bit of information on the company, information on what to expect from an evening with the Little Chico clan, how the evening is run, prices for the different scripted evenings, run times and what is required from you, the client.

Little Chico Productions was founded in 2012 and is now Oxfordshire's premier Murder Mystery Company. We are proud to use only the very best trained actors, skilled in the art of ridiculous improvisation but always professional and with a terrific sense of fun. Their aim is exactly the same as yours, to enjoy the evening! Collectively they have extensive West End and national touring credits.

The scripts have all been written by fantastic writers, some of their work can also be seen on the West End stage. They are engaging, well structured but overall very silly and good fun. There are 7 Murder Mystery scripts to choose from, all vary slightly in format, length and price but all offer your guests an evening they won't forget!

You don't need to prepare anything beforehand, LCP is completely self contained and will come armed with props, clue packs and all the materials you need in order to solve the murder. All you have to do is speculate about the clues we've left as to who the murderer was, how it was done and why. Our mission is to bring exciting theatre to you and your guests!

Please visit the website www.littlechicoproductions.co.uk for more information on up and coming events and photos and comments of murders past. You can also "like" us on Facebook and follow us on twitter @LittleChico1. We look forward to meeting you soon!

Murderously yours,

Testimonials - Public events and Corporate

Working with Little Chico Productions has been a pleasure, Murder Mystery was a very new direction for Missenden Abbey and Hannah and her team made it effortless. From the initial concept through to the final event Hannah was available to answer questions and guide us through the format of the evening. The actors were brilliant and very quickly relaxed and engaged our guests, we would not hesitate to recommend Little Chico Productions and are looking forward to working with them frequently in the future. Louise Reed, Events Manager, Missenden Abbey, Great Missenden

Little Chico Productions hosted an event for a Murder Mystery evening FAM event. The professional and polished performance of the actors made the whole night a real success and enabled guests who had never met to relax and enjoy the evening. The performance provided is different to other murder mystery evenings where the intelligence of the actors all gauge just how much you wish to be involved and make it a pleasurable experience for everyone involved whilst allowing guests to get what they want out of the experience. I would highly recommend this production for any corporate events, dinner parties or weekend excursions; a thoroughly flawless evening....Thank you. Daniel Taylor, Moor Hall, Henley on Thames

We hire Little Chico Productions for public events all of which sell out fast. In the run up to the events, all queries were handled promptly and professionally. On the night, the actors went consistently above and beyond to ensure that all of our guests had a good time. Importantly, they also filled in easily with the catering team, so that all meals were served at the perfect time. On one evening, in an impromptu move, they even got one of our unsuspecting waiters to take part in the story! I would heartily recommend Little Chico Productions to anyone. Denman will definitely be booking them in the future. Kate Bullas, Marketing Manager, Denman College, Marcham

Little Chico Productions had a challenge to make a Murder Mystery theme last over nearly 24 hours and 3 venues and I am delighted to say it worked brilliantly! Our clients and the hosts were totally hooked by it and it made for a fantastic and enjoyable event for everyone. They were very professional, extremely funny and totally engaging throughout. I would have no hesitation in recommending them and hope that we will be able to work with them in the future. Carol, Henley Conferences, Henley on Thames
